His Appointment and that of Mr. Bunn Please All Hands.

COUTHAMPTON L. L. July 29 -- Exudge Kilbreth, who was appointed Collector of the Port of New York by President Cleveland yesterday, was "Evening World' reporter t his country home here this morning. Custom House Tammany Hall need not apply for any of the plums.

The Judge was up to his cars in bustess when the reporter called at his residence in Fairview.

time he is the best and perhaps about the only man that can bring the country out of the unfortunate position into which it has fallen.
"I was, of course, an Anti-Snapper and worked hard for Mr. Cleveland's interests. Naturally I am not particularly friendly in a political sense with those who oppose him."

There was but one opinion among business men in this city this morning and that was that President Cleveland had made two ideal appointments in the sciection of James T. Kilbreth for Collector of Customs and Walter H. Bunn for Appraiser of Merchandise for the Port of New York.

Only the politicians of the Tammany faith are disappointed, and even they admit that as far as the men are concerned personally the President was most fortunate in his choice, his appointees being men of sterling character and ability.

JAMES T. KILBRETH.

Euch an indersement from such surce is probably the strongest recommendation two officials could get in the business community. For that reason merchants and others who deal through the Custom-House are glad that the customs service is to be adterest of the business community. Tammany men are stoles, and like the Spartans of old they will stand a good deal of punishment before they will complain. They have nothing to say against the appointment of Mr Kilbreth and Mr. Bunn. Neither do they give them their enthusiastic indorse-since them their enthusiastic indorsement.

It is recalled that when Justice Killer and the specific term expired in January his friends presented a petition for his respipointment. That petition bore the signature of the solid men of New York Democrats. Republicans, Mugnumes and of all other classes whose sames are worth having on such a document. The petition was ignored, and weighers, assistant gausers, and sers.

Business men, as well as politicians, are interested in the distribution of this patronage. The former care little whether the clerks are Snappers or Anti-Snappers, as long as they are competent. Judge Kilbreth's appointment is reassuring to them on this point. They believe he has the essential qualities to make a good Collector—a thorough knowledge of the law and business ability. Merchants are also pleased because Judge Kilbreth is a New York man who understands the needs of the business community.

because Judge Kilbreth is a New Forman who understands the needs of the business community.

Mr. Bunn, the new Appraiser, is from up country. He is more of a politician than Judge Kilbreth, having been active for years in public affairs in his home. Otsego County. He was United States Marshal for the Northern District of New York under Mr. Cleveland's first Administration.

He and Mr. Kilbreth were Anti-Snappers; both promoted the May Convention movement. "Were delegates to Syracuse, and both worked for Mr. Cleveland's nomination at Chicago. His adherence to Mr. Cleveland probably lost Judge Kilbreth another term on the Police Bench. His steadfastness is now rewarded with the Collectorship. The term is for four years, the salary $12.000 and the chances for advancement and the road to the goal of greatness much easier to reach than from the Police Court.

Mr. Bunn refused all offers of position and endemonument from the opposition and endemonument from the opposition and endemonument from the opposition and services a tostmaster Charles W. Dayton was very much pleased over ex-Justice Kilbrett's accession to the Collectorship. "It's a most excellent appointment," he said. "I have known Mr. Kilbreth a great many years. He is a very able man, aid will give us an administration that will be an administration." "I have known Mr. Kilbreth for a number of years," continued Mr. Dayton, "He is a man of excellent judicial mind, well posted on public affairs, and in my colinion will make an excellent Collector of the port."

Mr. Dayton is now a member of Tam many Hall.

Ex-Police Justice Maurice J. Power, former leader of the County Democracy—I think the appointment the best that could possibly have been made.

All the Anil-Snappers and members of the Reform Club talk the same way.

The Mayor's private secretary, William Holly—It is superfluous for me to say anything in favor of Judge Kilbreth. The difficulty would be to find any one to say anything against him. As a newspaper reporter, having an acquaintance with Police Court matters. I know Judge Kilbreth's excellent record in office.

It is the same with every one who knows him, and in every other relation of life. The appointment cannot be criticised. Yet I had never thought of the Judge for Collector, and if I had been asked to name a man for the place, you may be sure I would have named some one else.

The appointment of Judge Kilbreth did not seem to arouse much interest among Custom-House officials.

Deputy Gunner said he had not looked for the persimmon to fall into Kilbreth's lap: "but so far as I am concerned it is immaterial to me who comes here."

Mr. Couch, who has charge of the correspondence department, said that Judke Kilbreth had not signified his intention of coming to the Custom-House to-day, but he would not be surprised if he would call to see Mr. Hendricks on Monday.

But very few of the employees knew of the appointment, and therefore were not at all uneasy over the anticipation of being soon turned out of a job.

Says Those Pension Bureau Decisions Were Not Promulgated.

WASHINGTON, July 29. - Ex-Assistant Secretary Bussey denies Deputy Commissioner Bell's statements to the effect that sixteen employees of the Pension Bureau, whose pensions were fliegally increased in 1880 by Commissioner Tanner, were still drawing their pensions at the increased rate in contempt of specific instructions given by Assistant Secbe restored; also the further statement that these orders of Assistant S-cretary Bussey had been accreted and were only recently discovered by Commissioner Lochren.

Mr. Bussey says that during the Tanner investigation he had, on his own motion, taken up a number of cases of pension employees and wrote out a decision in each case. They were formulated with a view to their being shown to the President and Secretary Noble as alids in their investigation and understanding or the cases and allo with a view to their subsequent official promulgation if they met with their approvas.

They did not meet with the approval of the Secretary, who decided upon another course of procedure.

After it had teen decided not to issue the decisions as prepared, Gen. Bussey says, ne put them in his desk, where they remained for many months. On one occasion he showed them to commissioner Raum, who asked permission to take a number of them and wrote out a decision in each case. They

The bite is not of such a nature as to cause the officer any slarm, as the hydrophobia theory has been thoroughly exploded. It is sufficient however, to exhaust the patience of the police, and the necessary steps will be taken today to have Brassington committed to an asylum.

A petition is now being circulated by Brassington's neighbors, demanding his removal from their vicinity by the authorities.

when the bank officers arrived everything was made ready to meet the run. The doors were thrown open and the surging crowd passed in.

The people scrambled and fought to get at the paying-teller's window. The men pushed and shoved the women, and several hats were knocked off.

Matters were reaching a climax when one of the officers of the bank called out to the people that the bank was ready to meet all the demands of its depositors, and that they had a surplus of $22,765,570,39.

This announcement did not quiet the depositors, and a policeman was sent for. All morning the paying-teller was kept busy, but toward noon the anxiety of the depositors had been quieted.

In speaking of the run Cashier Felix E. Flandrean, in the absence of President H. P. Morgan, said:

"We did not mind the slight run, as our institution was never before in a better condition to meet the demands of depositors. I do not think there is a weak savings bank in Brooklyn. They are all in a fine financial condition.

"If there is a big run I guess we can meet it and accommodate all. I haven't heard that we are to give notice about the sixty-day notice. We have not called a meeting of trustees."

Henry D. Atwater, convoler of the South Brooklyn Savings Bank, said:

"We have $12,09,090 on deposit, and the bank is in a fine condition to meet the demands of its depositors. certain time with a bag containing $10,000.

One of the gang carried a piece of lead pipe wrapped in cloth. With this Smith was knocked down, but so much excitement prevailed that the thieves were glad to escape without obtaining any of the booty.

The same day Farrell was arrested while riding in a butcher cart in the lower part of the city.

Lynch was identified as James Murroy, alias Kane. Before they were arrested this morning Farrell and Murray were seen in the vicinity of Whitfield W. Edwards's grocery store, Fourth avenue and Kingsbridge road, near Webster avenue, Farrell was first arrested Nov. 17, 1887, under the name of Edward Williams. He then attempted to rob the cashier of Hall's plano factory of $2,800. He was not convicted of the crime, however.

Murray has received four years in the Kings County Penitentiary and four years and six months in the Bridgeport. Conn., Penitentiary for till-tapping.

our years and six months in the Bridge-port, Conn., Penitentiary for till-tap-ping.

Two weeks ago he was arrested on suspicion of til-tapping in the Annexed District, but was discharged.

There have been numerous burglaries in the Annexed District recently, and the police suspect Farrell and Murray.

Police Think Miss Morrison Was Assaulted by Young Weeks. CAMDEN, N. J., July 29.-There is considerable mystery surrounding the case of Miss Mary Morrison, the young woman who claims to have been as-saulted by a burglar while she was isleep in bed at midnight on Thursday,

The police discredit the burglary story, and Chief of Police Dayls said at noon to-day that he had investigated the case and was convinced that Miss Morrison was assailted by a young man named Walter Weeks, who is a boarder in the same house.

The Morrison family cannot be made to believe that Young Weeks committed the assault, and neither Miss Morrison or her family will consent to have him arrested. Arrested.

Miss Morrison sticks to the story that when she woke up she saw a burglar in the room, and that he struck her with a blunt instrument which rendered her unconscious.

rims arranged Charles Hephy, twenty-sever, years old, of 277 West street, and Robert Weltz, seventeen years of age, a messenger, of 23 East Third street, for obtaining 355 from saloon-keeper William Hennessy, of 55 Bond street, on a forged check

Mr. Hennessy had no besitation in giving the messenger the money, as he knew Duncan was Chief Inspector in the Excise Department, and he also knew that Excise Inspector Casey, of the Fifth Ward, had died the day before. Another thing which Hennessy believed was that the check was drawn by excommissioner Von Glahn.

Three days inter the check was returned from the bank marked "No account," and when Hennessy made inquiries Mr. Von Glaghn and Mr. Duncan declared their names had been forged.

From the description given by the saloon-keeper the descrives arrested young Weitz a couple of days ago, and he said he got the check from a strangeman, to whom he said he gave the money.
